Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

2. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Arikawa et al (US 6385139).

Arakawa discloses a display device comprising : a transmitted light polarization axis changing device 3 (Applicant's transparent/transmissive element), a backlight element (Applicant's light generating element), a reflecting element 5 (Applicant's transfective element) disposed between the backlight element and the transmitted light polarization axis changing device. See Figures 1-17.

Arakawa discloses the reflecting element comprising a transfective-type element such as a half-mirror or the like (col. 15, lines 52-53), wherein examples of materials comprise a metal thin layer (col. 9, lines 26-30).

Arakawa discloses the backlight element comprising EL element (col. 11, lines 1-4).
